

LANUZA

S U R F I N G F E S T I V A L 2 0 0 9

LANUZA, the once small coastal town in Mindanao, now hailed as the Surfing Gateway of the Philippines by the Department of Tourism is ravaging in attractions and festivities as big as its waves!!! Reputedly the second largest rolling wave in the world. California style round rock river mouth break completely staging this year's 7th Lanuza International Surfing Festival 2009.

SURFER'S NIGHT.

The crowd's favorite, who will capture the heart of the crowd as we recognize the first ever SURFER OF THE NIGHT! TO WIN P20,000.00 IN CASH.

HAWAIIAN NIGHT.

Everybody party to the last drop of eating, drinking and fun! Seafood lovers, SUGBA in its freshest catch will find the province's rich marine resources to their liking, crabs, lobsters and sugpo... name it and you got them into your palette.... FOOD GALORE EXTRAVAGANZA!

